For the gentlemen: Fountain Pens, Card Case, Safety Razor, Pocket Book, Military Hair Brushes.

A. C. KOEPPEN & BROTHERS,
Popular Price Druggists.

FROM NORTH M'KAY.

"Ten Nights in a Barroom" Will Be Presented About January 1.

Christmas preparations are the order of the day.

The late rains make the gardeners and ranchers hopeful.

Barney Crowner's condition remains about the same.

The young people of district 29 and thereabouts, are rehearsing to place the play of "Ten Nights in a Barroom" on the boards on or about New Year's.

The Literary society met on Friday evening, December 23, and rendered a fine program of singing, recitations, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kidder of Spokane are spending the holidays with relatives and friends.

The people near the Richardson ranch have completed a fine levee to guard their ranches against the ravages of the river.

MAGNIFICENT PRODUCTS.

From Payette, Idaho, Exhibited Here—Fine Land for Sale.

J. A. Harader, representing the Payette Valley Real Estate Agency, of Payette, Idaho, showed a fine exhibit of apples, corn and grains from the Payette and Weiser valleys at J. H. Henning's store yesterday. Much interest was shown in the samples of splendid fruit and more especially the corn which was shown. Booklets describing the resources of this section may be had free by calling at Mr. Henning's store.

Charged With Stealing Overcoat.

Earl Perry is under arrest charged with the larceny of an overcoat. The coat was taken from the O. R. & N. depot some time yesterday. Perry was arrested when he attempted to sell the coat at a second-hand store. The coat belongs to John Roberts of La Grande. The owner is in Pendleton today to appear against Perry.

Will Attend Congregational Church.

The Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and the Encampment will meet at the Odd Fellows' hall tomorrow at 1 a. m. to attend the Congregational church.

The last Saturday night in 1904, but one, and the Peoples Warehouse will make it the merriest, swiftest and grandest old Saturday night of 1904. Men's neckwear, men's mufflers, men's silk suspenders, men's smoking jackets, men's fancy socks, men's fancy vests and men's everything will be here for you in a great variety and at immense savings. Come around and make us prove it. Ask to be shown the article. Tell the clerks that you "are from Missouri" and that they have got to show you. They will be glad to do it, because they know that the Peoples Warehouse has to make good every time they make a claim. McMinn's orchestra of six pieces will render sweet music.
